

Personal Details:

Mohlehli George Mohlehli
+27 614078663
Email: mohlehlmohlehli@gmail.com
Or 1791413@students.wits.ac.za
Code C Drivers Licence – 3 years
South African Citizen (By Birth)

Additional Details:

Own Car? - YES
Health Condition – Excellent

Current Address:

25 Banff Ave,
Hurst Hill
Johannesburg 2092

Profile

Mohlehli GM is an individual with strong interpersonal skills, seeking for an opportunity and eager to learn. He is 2nd year PhD student at the University of Witwatersrand in the school of Geography, Archaeology and Environmental Sciences (GAES). His PhD field of study focuses on the farming practices in Lydenburg through time (Early (600-1200AD), late Farming periods (1400-until colonial period). The study aims at turning Geographic Data into Useful Information: Spatial Data Analysis. Consuming Geographic Data: Geo-imaging and Information Conveyance in bokoni to determine land use and land cover alterations through time.

Professional Experience

Company – University of Witwatersrand

Student Assistant: Jan 2020 - present

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assisting students to comply with contracted scope of work and delivering of high performance in their academic activities.
- Identify and motivate student's problems to help produce quality performance in the social and academic activities.
- Perform regular audits on quality, safety and key performance indicators and making recommendations in the learning environment.

Company – University of Witwatersrand

Lab Assistant and Student Assistant |Johannesburg| January 2020 (present)

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Facilitated the Students with the lab practical's by:
 - Weekly preparation of the lab material,
 - Writing of the pre-practical tests, invigilating the test, marking of scripts, and recording results,
 - Weekly reporting to the senior lab assistant.
 - Conducting and facilitating in student's tutorials

Awards

- Postgraduate Merit Award (2020)
- National Research Foundation Grantholder Award (2020)
- Tutoring training Certificate (2020)

Education

1 National University of Lesotho (Lesotho)

Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Economic BSc | – NQF Level 7 | Completed June 2016

Research project submitted (June 2016)

- Factors constraining agribusiness in Maseru.
 - Supervisor – Dr. Montoeli Rantlo, HOD of Agricultural Economics and Extension

2 University of Free State (Bloemfontein)

Master's in Sustainable Agriculture | MSc (Masters Degree) – NQF Level 9 | Completed June 2019

Dissertation – Final Year

- Factors constraining Small non-commercial farmers from graduating into commercial farming in the Mangaung Municipality.
 - External Supervisor: Mr Darren Engelbrecht

3 University of Witwatersrand (Johannesburg)

Doctor of Philosophy by publication in the School of Geography Archaeology and Environmental Studies (GAES) Ph. D | – NQF Level 10 | Still Studying (2nd Year of study).

Thesis topic: Farming from Khutwaneng to Thaba Chweu: An investigation into the changing relationship between farming and sustainable livelihoods in northern Mpumalanga, South Africa from AD 1500 to 2014.

Objective 1

Land Use and Farm Size changes Analysis between AD1500 and 2014 in western Thaba Chweu using multi-temporal remote sensing data.

Objective 2

Examining the spectral ability of multispectral sensors to detect surface archaeological land cover and settlements, a case of the Khutwaneng kingdom in Mpumalanga Lydenburg (Mashishing).

Skills

